With its extensive parklands and native bushland surrounds, St. James Heights feels like it could be miles from anywhere. In reality, this perfect piece of paradise is less than 18 kilometers from Brisbane's CBD, seven kilometers from the Gateway Motorway and just minutes from the alfresco eateries that dot the foreshore of Manly and Wellington Point.

A contemporary Queensland bayside vision inspires masterpieces that capitalise on our climate and utilise the natural environment. And flexible construction covenants enable each home to retain its individuality whilst enhancing the areas styling, value and community.
